Nature Of Opinion:

Docket Number: W-03443A-15-0271

Docket Position: Against

1. Appaloosa Water Co. (AWC) is out of compliance with Town of Chino Valley fire flow requirements and has been for years. 2. AWC is out of compliance with Arizona Corporation Commission order #71236 dated 8/6/2009 regarding failure to meet NARUC accounting requirements. ACC Decision #74787 Confirms that AWC is still not in compliance six years later 3. ACC Decision # 74787 confirms that AWC is not in compliance with ADWR requirements governing water providers and/or community water systems. Compliance was ordered within six months which has not occurred to my knowledge. 4. ACC Decision #74787 ordered AWC to install an emergency generator sufficient to run the companies high yield well. Compliance was ordered by July 31, 2015. There is no notice of compliance by Appaloosa Water company to date and the financing authority expires today. 5. AWC has a long history of ignoring ACC orders with apparent impunity. The ACC is failing the people of Chino Valley. NO RATE INCREASES W/O COMPLIANCE!
